

Dear Vanguard Community:

Effective April 7, 2020, the college will not require students to participate in a proctored final exam in which students are asked to come to an ASU-Beebe campus. All final exams will take place online or through an alternate method of delivery. Faculty will announce to their students the method in which the final exam will be delivered. Please note the following parameters regarding Spring 2020 final exams for Full-Term and Term II Courses:

1. Final Exam Week schedule for May 7 – 12 remains unchanged. All finals will be delivered during this week.
2. Faculty will communicate with their students regarding their final exam and how it will be delivered. Students should expect to take their final exams via CANVAS or an alternate method of delivery.
3. Students should communicate with their instructors early regarding challenges with access to technology so that the faculty member can address student needs.
