A. Purpose and Scope

The Office of Disability Services registers students with disabilities for academic and non-academic accommodations to ensure equal access in their educational pursuits.

B. Definitions

New Student - A new student to accommodations is a student who has never been approved for accommodations at Arkansas State University-Beebe or a student who has not used approved accommodations in the last five years at ASU-Beebe.

Continuing Student – A student who has been approved for accommodations by the Office of Disability Services in the last five years is considered a continuing student.

Accommodation Notice – The official document that lists the student's approved accommodations for the current semester/term created by the Office of Disability Services.

Calendly - Online appointment software app.

C. Procedures

Accommodation Process: New Student

1. Student completes and turns in the request for accommodations form to the Office of Disability Services. The request for accommodations form is available on the ASU-Beebe website and is completed and submitted online. A paper copy can be requested from the office if needed.
2. Student must provide documentation information regarding the student's disability. Documentation should be emailed to the Office of Disability Services or may be dropped off in person to one of the office locations: Beebe-McKay Student Center, Office of Disability Services, Searcy-Main Building, disability liaison or Heber Springs-Student Services/admin building, disability liaison. Documentation might be a letter from a doctor or therapist, a testing report from a specialist, IEP/504 Plan from high school, or another disability-type document.
3. Student meets with the Office of Disability Services and develops the accommodation notice for the semester. The accommodation notice is the official document that lists the student's approved accommodations for the current semester/term. Appointments are available via telephone, video conferencing, or in person. Appointments are scheduled by calling the Office of Disability Services or using the online scheduling app, Calendly.
4. The Office of Disability Services emails the accommodation notice to the instructor and the student for each course the student is registered for the current semester/term. Accommodations start at the point of the email notification to the instructors.
5. Student works out details of each accommodation with each instructor to confirm all arrangements are in place for the semester for all courses. The Office of Disability Services assists as needed.

Accommodation Process: Continuing Student

1. Student completes and turns in the request to continue accommodations form to the Office of Disability Services to indicate the student's decision to use approved accommodations for the semester/term. The request to continue accommodations form is available on the ASU-Beebe website and is completed and submitted online. A paper copy can be requested from the office if needed.
2. Accommodation notices are prepared for students who have turned in their request to continue accommodations form. The Office of Disability Services emails the prepared accommodation notice to each of the student's instructors and the student. For requests to continue accommodations received prior to the beginning of the semester/term date, the Office of Disability Services will email the accommodation notice to the student's instructors and the student on the first day of the semester/term. Requests to continue accommodations received after the beginning of the semester/term. The Office of Disability Services will email the accommodations notice to the student's instructors and the student within two business days after receipt of the request.

3. Student works out the details of each accommodation with each instructor to confirm all arrangements are in place for the semester/term. The Office of Disability Services is available to assist as needed.
